RESPONDENT’S PROFFER ON AWARD OF COMPENSATION

On September 11, 2015, petitioner, Pedro De Jesus, filed a petition for compensation under the National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act, 42 U.S.C. §§ 300aa-10 to -34 (“Vaccine Act”), alleging that he developed shoulder injuries as a result of receiving a seasonal influenza (“flu”) vaccine on November 26, 2014. On January 4, 2016, respondent filed her Rule 4(c) Report stating that petitioner’s arm injury is consistent with a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (“SIRVA”) and conceding that his SIRVA is compensable under the Vaccine Act. Accordingly, on January 5, 2016, Chief Special Master Dorsey issued a Ruling on Entitlement finding that petitioner is entitled to compensation for SIRVA.

I. Items of Compensation

For the purposes of this proffer, the term “vaccine-related” is as described in Respondent’s Rule 4(c) Report filed on January 4, 2016.

A. Future Unreimbursable Expenses

The parties agree that based upon the evidence of record, petitioner will not require future care for his vaccine-related injury. Therefore, respondent proffers that petitioner should be awarded no future unreimbursable expenses under 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a)(1).

Petitioner agrees.

B. Lost Earnings

The parties agree that based upon the evidence of record, petitioner has not incurred and will not incur any loss of earnings as a result of his vaccine injury. Therefore, respondent proffers that petitioner should be awarded no actual or anticipated loss of earnings under 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a)(3)(A). Petitioner agrees.

C. Pain and Suffering

Respondent proffers that petitioner should be awarded $75,000.00 in actual and projected pain and suffering. This amount reflects that the award for projected pain and suffering has been reduced to net present value. See 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a)(4). Petitioner agrees.

D. Past Unreimbursable Expenses

Evidence supplied by petitioner documents his expenditure of past unreimbursable expenses related to her vaccine-related injury. Respondent proffers that petitioner should be awarded past unreimbursable expenses in the amount of $928.00. Petitioner agrees.

E. Medicaid Lien

Petitioner represents that there are no outstanding Medicaid liens against him.

II. Form of the Award

The parties recommend that compensation provided to petitioner should be made through a lump sum payment as described below and request that the Chief Special Master's decision and the Court's judgment award the following:¹

A. A lump sum payment of $75,928.00, representing compensation for pain and suffering and past unreimbursable expenses, in the form of a check payable to petitioner.

III. Summary of Recommended Payment Following Judgment

A. Lump sum paid to petitioner: $75,928.00
